3QFY26 RESULT REVIEW

Avenue Supermarts (DMart)

Surprise on profitability

Avenue Supermarts' (DMart) 3QFY26 profitability was above of our expectation. Revenue grew 13% YoY impacted by deflation in staples. Our understanding is that growth was also impacted by a shift in the festive season and lower SSSG. DMart added a net of 10 stores, taking the total store count to 442. Gross margin (GM) likely improved on account of saliency of private labels. EBITDA margin stood at 8.4% (vs. est. 7.2%), expanding 47 bps YoY led by sustained gross margins and lower other expenditure. Other expenses rose only 6.7% YoY vs. ~18%/ 23% in 3QFY24/ 3QFY25. Going ahead, store additions are expected to accelerate in 4QFY26, in line with the company's historical expansion trend. We believe DMart could add around 50–60 stores over the course of FY26. We have concerns on the sustainability of margins due to increased competition from quick-commerce and increased focus on enhancing customer experience. We build in revenue/ EBITDA CAGR of 15%/ 14% over FY25–28E. We marginally cut our FY27–28 estimates in view of the intense competition and maintain HOLD rating with a revised TP of INR 4,161 (previously INR 3,925) based on 40x FY28 EV/EBITDA (27% discount to 5-yr. average).

Deflation in staples impacted growth

During 3QFY26, standalone revenue grew by 13.2% YoY to INR 176 bn. Growth rate was impacted by deflationary trend in staples. On three-year CAGR basis, the company's revenue has grown by 16%. Mature stores (operational for two years or more) registered a growth of 5.6% on a high base of 8.3% in 3QFY25. Total bill cuts increased by 12% YoY to INR 10.3 mn (+6% QoQ). Food/ non-food/ GMA revenue mix stood at 57.2%/ 19.8%/ 23% for 9MFY26.

Steady margin improvement

Gross margin expanded 50 bps YoY to 14.2% during 3Q. In our view, this could likely be attributed to increasing focus on private label brands. EBITDA margin expanded 47 bps YoY to 8.4% owing to better gross margin as well as lower overheads. Other expenses grew only 6.7% YoY vs. ~18%/ 23% YoY growth in 3QFY24/ 3QFY25. DMart's focus on better services led to high employee costs, growing 31.7% YoY. Other income declined 17% YoY. PAT growth stood at 17.6% YoY, despite higher interest costs (+122% YoY).

Store expansion expected to ramp up in 4Q

During 3QFY26, DMart added 10 new stores, taking the total store count to 442. The company has been following cluster-based expansion with focus on deepening its presence in existing cities before expanding into new ones. It is expected to increase the pace of store addition in 4QFY26, in line with its historical expansion trend, with a larger proportion of openings likely in 4Q (4QFY24/ 4QFY25 added 24/ 28 stores). DMart has already opened 27 stores in 9MFY26. We estimate the company to open 50–60 stores in FY26.

Investment Summary

We expect DMart to deliver sales/ EBITDA CAGR of 15%/ 14% over FY25–28E. However, near-term challenges such as 1) Subdued margin performance due to low contribution from general merchandise & apparel, 2) Weak recovery in mature stores/ SSSG, and 3) Increased competitive intensity from online grocery format, mainly in metros/ tier 1 cities, is likely to keep DMart's performance under check in the near term.

Strong uptick in consumption; momentum to continue

Overall, consumption in 3QFY26 saw strong 20% YoY growth to INR 47.87 bn, driven by strong uptick in like-for-like consumption ~15%+. The Phoenix MarketCity (PMC) malls (Pune, Bengaluru, Chennai, and Mumbai) had seen muted like-for-like consumption for last few quarters. However, from 3Q onwards we expect the big gap between lease occupancy and trading occupancy to narrow gradually over the next 3-4 quarters. As the PMC malls see new brands operating and stabilizing in the next two quarters, trading occupancy and consumption uptick are expected from the PMC malls, especially from the ones in Pune and Bengaluru. We will see full impact of this increasing trading occupancy in FY27. In addition, project pipeline looks strong with three commercial offices, two new malls, expansion of two malls, and a hotel expected to come up by CY27 and three more malls by CY30. The pipeline is in line with PHNX's long term goal of adding 1-2 mn sq. ft. of retail space annually beyond FY30, alongside other asset classes. With consumption seeing a healthy uptick, trading occupancy in a few malls are expected to rise, and with the strong pipeline for the next few years we increase the rental expectation by 0%/ 5%/ 2% to 13%/ 10%/ 7% for FY26E/ 27E/ 28E. We also value the Surat and Project Rise as per NPV (earlier land valuation) and increase our premium to NAV to 35% from 30%. Our target price is revised upwards to INR 2,307 (previously INR 2,100).

Consumption picks up and should continue

As expected, a strong uptick in consumption was witnessed, with consumption reaching INR 47.9 bn in 3QFY26, up 20% YoY (vs. our estimate of INR 45 bn). 9MFY26 consumption grew 15% YoY. Despite select malls being revamped for premiumization, the consumption momentum continues, with newer malls also ramping up. The uptick is broad-based, with strong consumption across fashion (apparel, footwear), accessories, FECs, multiplexes, and white goods. Consumption is mostly like-for-like with no new additional space being added, however, improving trading occupancy in PMC malls partially contributed. We expect like-for-like consumption growth to continue to be the double digits in the next few quarters. Premiumization, increasing trading occupancy in PMC malls, brand churn, and GST rationalization would continue to drive double-digit growth.

Growth to continue from the strong pipeline beyond FY30

FY27: (i) Premiumization and brand churn in PMC malls will be fully reflected. (ii) Expansion of 0.17 mn sq. ft. in PMC Bengaluru will be completed and operational in FY27. (iii) The three completed (OCs received) commercial office with GLA of 2.9 mn sq. ft.—(a) Asia Towers in Bengaluru, (b) Millennium Towers in Pune, (c) One National Park in Chennai. These three factors besides same-store growth will contribute to consumption growth.

FY28: (i) Completion of expansion of 0.45 mn sq. ft. in Phoenix Palladium in Mumbai, (ii) Completion of Kolkata and Surat malls, (iii) Completion of office space: (a) Project Rise (1.3 mn sq. ft.) in Mumbai, (b) 0.4 mn sq. ft. of office tower in Whitefield (PMC Bengaluru), (iv) Grand Hyatt project (400 keys) in Whitefield, Bengaluru. Leasing has already commenced in three of the completed office towers and the two under-construction malls.

All the above projects and expansion will continue to ramp up beyond FY28.

Beyond FY30: The projects in Thane, Mohali, and Coimbatore are planned post-2030, with Mohali under approval, Coimbatore construction likely commencing in 2HFY26, and Thane having received preliminary approval.

Phase 3 expansion in PMC Bengaluru: In addition, there is phase 3 expansion in PMC Bengaluru comprising 0.6 mn sq. ft. of retail, 1.2 mn sq. ft. of office and 300-key hotel.

Investment Summary

The medium to long-term outlook remains positive for PHNX given (a) Leadership position in the mall business, (b) Sufficient liquidity and cash flow visibility for mall expansion beyond FY30, (c) Strong free cash flow generation and well-planned capital deployment strategy, (d) Focused strategy to tap high-consumption centers. We maintain BUY with a revised TP of INR 2,307.

MONTHLY UPDATE

Asset management

Equity + hybrid flows stable with sustained retail participation

The Indian mutual fund industry's AUM declined by 0.7% MoM but increased by a healthy 19.9% YoY to INR 80.2 trn in Dec'25, with the marginal MoM decline largely driven by sharp debt fund outflows linked to advance tax payments and the modest MTM pressure on equities. Net equity + hybrid (ex-arbitrage) inflows remained resilient at INR 387 bn, broadly flat MoM (-1%), despite a sharp pick-up in redemption. Passive flows strengthened to INR 267 bn, driven by strong inflows into other ETFs and record inflows into gold ETFs (+221% MoM). Debt-oriented schemes saw net outflows of INR 1.32 trn, primarily due to liquidation in liquid, money market, and ultra-short duration funds. SIP contributions hit a record high of INR 310 bn (+5% MoM, +17% YoY), while SIP AUM increased to INR 16.63 trn, accounting for 20.7% of industry AUM. We remain positive on the AMC space and believe companies with consistent fund performance are likely to gain from disproportionate market share flows, driving earnings upgrade. NAM and HDFCAMC remain our top picks.

Equity + hybrid (ex-arbitrage)—flows steady despite elevated redemptions

Gross equity + hybrid (ex-arbitrage) flows rose 9% MoM to INR 893.6 bn, while redemptions increased 18% MoM to INR 506.7 bn. This resulted in net inflows of INR 386.8 bn, marginally lower than INR 390.2 bn in Nov'25. Equity funds contributed INR 280.5 bn (-6% MoM), while hybrid (ex-arbitrage) schemes added INR 106.3 bn (+17% MoM). Even as the intensity of redemptions picked up during the month; sustained gross inflows highlight continued investor engagement across equity and asset-allocation products.

Equity—Net inflows moderate; flexi-cap remains the key contributor

Equity gross flows increased 7% MoM to INR 689.8 bn, with redemptions rising 18% MoM to INR 409.3 bn, resulting in net equity inflows moderating to INR 280.5 bn (-6% MoM). Flexi-cap funds remained the largest contributor with net inflows of INR 100.2 bn (+23% MoM). Mid-cap and small-cap funds continued to attract healthy flows of INR 41.8 bn and INR 38.2 bn, respectively, albeit with some moderation. Large & mid-cap funds saw net inflows of INR 40.9 bn, while sectoral/ thematic and focused funds witnessed a sharp MoM slowdown, reflecting profit booking and category rotation. Flexi-cap, large & mid, mid-cap and small-cap funds together accounted for >75% of total equity inflows during the month.

SIP flows hit an all-time high; retail discipline strengthens

SIP contributions increased to a record INR 310 bn in Dec'25 (+5% MoM, +17% YoY), underscoring the continued strength of retail participation. SIP AUM rose to INR 16.63 trn, accounting for 20.7% of industry AUM, supported by a steady increase in the number of contributing SIP accounts, which rose to ~98 mn during the month. Retail participation through systematic investing remains resilient despite short-term market volatility and category-level moderation, providing a strong foundation for medium-term equity flows.

Outlook

While equity and equity-oriented hybrid net inflows moderated marginally in Dec'25 due to higher redemptions, record SIP inflows and steady gross flow momentum highlights the structural strength of investor participation. Equity and hybrid categories continue to post positive net flows, reinforcing the long-term resilience of the AMC business model amid short-term volatility. We continue to expect 14%–18% AAUM growth and 12%–18% revenue/ PAT CAGR for AMCs over FY25–28E, with NAM and HDFCAMC remaining our preferred picks.

Other Key Highlights

Hybrid (ex-arbitrage)—Strong traction led by multi-asset funds

Hybrid (ex-arbitrage) gross flows rose 15% MoM to INR 203.7 bn, while redemptions increased 14% MoM to INR 97.4 bn, resulting in net inflows of INR 106.3 bn (+17% MoM). Multi-asset allocation funds led flows with INR 74.3 bn (+40% MoM), followed by balanced/ aggressive hybrid funds at INR 15.1 bn (+9% MoM). Dynamic asset allocation/ balanced advantage funds saw some moderation with net inflows of INR 11.0 bn (-22% MoM).

Debt & passive—Tax-driven debt outflows; passive flows accelerate

Debt-oriented schemes witnessed net outflows of INR 1.32 trn, driven by sharp increase redemptions from liquid, money market, and ultra-short duration funds amid advance tax payments, leading to a 6.5% MoM decline in debt AUM. In contrast, passive flows strengthened to INR 267 bn, remaining positive for the 62nd consecutive month. Other ETFs dominated inflows, followed by record inflows into gold ETFs, supported by rising gold prices and safe-haven demand. The segment saw 15 NFOs, collectively mobilizing ~INR 1.7 bn during Dec'25.

Industry retail APE rose 21.9% YoY in Dec'25, (on a low 5% base) driven by a 20% YoY increase for private players (vs. 11% in Dec'24) and a 27.5% YoY rebound for LIC (vs. -13% in Dec'24). Growth was broad-based across key players with MAXF up 26%, SBILIFE up 22%, and HDFCLIFE up 9%, while IPRU saw a growth of 4% YoY on a high base. On a 2-year YTD CAGR basis, private players delivered 16.2% growth in individual APE led by MAXF (22%), HDFCLIFE (16%), SBILIFE (14%), and IPRU (~13%). Private players' retail APE market share improved by 230 bps to 72.6% on YTD basis. LICI reported strong retail APE growth of 27.5% YoY, albeit on a lower base, translating to a modest 2.7% two-year YTD CAGR. Group APE rose sharply by 74% YoY driven by 100% YoY growth by LICI. At the aggregate level, total APE during Dec'25 for private players rose 20.7% YoY, while LICI grew 44.5% YoY, resulting in industry APE growth of 26.9% YoY. With structural growth drivers intact, we expect private insurers to sustain mid-teens growth in retail APE over the medium term, aided by recovery in volume traction post-GST relief. Risk-reward remains balanced with valuations at 0.6x-2.3x implied FY27E P/EV for our coverage universe. HDFCLIFE and MAXF continue to remain our top picks.

Top picks:

HDFCLIFE

MAXF

SBILIFE—Retail APE up 22.4% YoY; 2-yr YTD CAGR 14.2%

SBILIFE reported 22.4% YoY growth in individual APE to INR 42.9 bn in Dec'25. Market share improved 80 bps to 18.6% (FY26TD). Total APE grew 22.0% YoY, while group APE rose 9.4% YoY. NoP increased 17.6% YoY, reflecting steady volume traction. On two-year YTD CAGR basis, individual APE grew 14.2%.

HDFCLIFE—9.2% retail APE growth; 2-yr YTD CAGR 16.4%

HDFCLIFE reported 9.2% YoY growth in individual APE to INR 14.4bn. Total APE increased 9.9% YoY, while group APE grew 19% YoY. Retail APE market share was stable at 10.9% (FY26TD). On two-year YTD CAGR basis, individual APE grew 16.4%.

IPRU—Retail APE grew 4.3% YoY; 2-yr YTD CAGR ~15%

IPRU reported 4.3% increase YoY in retail APE to INR 7.97 bn on a higher base. Total APE grew 7.3% YoY, while RWRP grew 11.5% YoY. The market share declined 90 bps to 5.9% YoY in Dec'25. On two-year YTD CAGR basis, total APE rose ~13%.

MAXF—Retail APE up 25.6% YoY; fastest growth among large peers

MAXF delivered 25.6% YoY growth in individual APE to INR 11.2 bn and 25.9% YoY growth in total APE. Group APE surged 46.1% YoY, while NoP rose 33.3% YoY, indicating strong retail momentum. On two-year YTD CAGR basis, individual APE grew 22.2%, the highest among larger peers. Market share improved 60 bps to 7.1% (FY26TD).

LICI—Retail APE up 27.5% YoY; market share moderates

LICI posted 27.5% YoY growth in individual APE to INR 36.7 bn, aided by base effect and strong monthly traction. Total APE rose 44.5% YoY, while group APE doubled YoY, driven by institutional business. However, retail market share declined 228 bps to 27.4% (FY26TD). On two-year YTD CAGR basis, individual APE growth remained modest at 2.7%.

Other key players

Tata AIA Life (+16.1% YoY), ABSL (+18.3%), and BALIC (+17.2%) reported healthy retail APE growth, while Canara HSBC Life (+41.6%) stood out with strong momentum off a smaller base and improving market share. On two-year YTD CAGR basis, ABSL (24.8%) and Tata AIA (18.2%) continue to deliver robust growth.

Outlook: Growth momentum to sustain

With structural growth drivers intact, we expect private insurers to sustain mid-teens growth in retail APE over the medium term, aided by recovery in volume traction post-GST relief. Key monitorable include any change in distributor's commission as new rules are likely to empower the regulator to set limits on the same. Key risks include any regulatory changes. HDFCLIFE and MAXF remain our top picks in the space. SBILIFE is our result pick.

IPM posts 15% YoY growth in Dec'25 driven by sharp recovery in Acute segment

In Dec'25, Indian Pharma Market (IPM) grew 15% YoY (v/s 7% YoY in Dec'24 and 9% YoY in Nov'25). On MoM basis, IPM grew 2%. Therapy-wise, Chronic grew 19% YoY while Acute 12% YoY (v/s 5% YoY in Nov'25). Among large therapies, Cardiac/Anti-diabetic/Respiratory grew 19%/18%/16% YoY, outperforming IPM. However, Anti-infective/Derma/Gastro underperformed IPM, growing 8%/11%/12% YoY. Company-wise, eight of the top-10 reported growth higher than that of IPM for Dec'25. PFIZER grew the fastest (20% YoY) followed by SUNP/GNP/INTAS/ARISTO. On MAT basis, IPM grew 9% YoY, led by 4% YoY increase in prices, 3% YoY jump in new products and 2% volume growth. In Dec'25, Indian companies and MNCs grew 15% YoY and 17% YoY respectively. In 3QFY26, IPM grew 12% YoY led by acute/chronic delivering 9%/17% YoY growth.

Our view: Looking ahead to FY26E, we anticipate continued improvement in Cardiac, Neuro/CNS, and Anti-diabetic therapies, as these segments are affected by both large products losing exclusivity and new launches. Overall, for FY26E, we expect IPM to grow at a healthy ~10% rate, driven by price/new products each growing 4%. However, we expect volume growth to be around in low-single-digits (1-2%) which remains a concern highlighting strong competition from alternate channels such as Jan Aushadhi and trade generics, in our view. We believe this trend to continue with branded IPM volumes posting LSD growth. Among our coverage companies, we prefer TRP for their healthy growth rates and therapy mix.

Top picks: TRP
