IndiaMart InterMesh

In-line operating performance, collection grew 17% YoY

IndiaMART reported inline performance with revenue of Rs.4.01 bn, up 2.7% QoQ and 12.5% YoY, driven by steady subscriber base and increase in registered buyers, with ARPU rising 2.0% QoQ to Rs.67 k. The paying supplier base slightly decreased by 1k QoQ to 221 k, while registered buyers increased by 6 Mn to 225 Mn and supplier storefronts rose 6% YoY to 8.7 Mn. Live product listings improved sequentially to 128 Mn from 124 Mn in Q2FY26. Collections stood at Rs.4.3 Bn, up 5.0% QoQ & up 17.0% YoY. EBITDA margin expanded by 20 bps QoQ to 33.4%, as a result of a 5.2% QoQ decrease in other expenses, while reported PAT increased to Rs.1,883 Mn from Rs.827 Mn in Q2FY26. The company delivered a steady quarter, supported by improving enquiry quality, stable customer engagement, and strong performance from higher-value customer segments. While near-term supplier additions remain moderated due to pricing actions and seasonality, management expects gradual improvement as product enhancements, AI-led initiatives, and better lead relevance translate into improved retention and monetization. Gold and Platinum clients (contributing over 75% of revenues) continue to show robust retention and upsell momentum. We expect Revenue/EBITDA/PAT to clock CAGR of 14.9%/10.3%/6.4% over FY25-FY28E. We have revised our FY26E/FY27E/FY28E EPS by 0.1%/(2.3)%/(2.0%). We roll-over to March'28 and maintain the rating to BUY with a revised target price of Rs2,653 (vs Rs2,885 earlier) at a PE of 24x (down from 27x due to muted volume growth) on March'28E EPS.

Revenue growth driven by increase in ARPU

ARPU growth remained in the 6–8%YoY range, in line with long-term guidance, driven by steady monetization and pricing discipline. The Gold and Platinum segments, which account for over 75% of revenue, continued to demonstrate strong retention and upsell trends, reflecting higher customer stickiness and sustained value realization from premium offerings. We expect paid supplier addition to improve led by clear improvement in enquiry quality, relevance, and repeat engagement—key leading indicators that support a recovery in supplier additions.

EBITDA margin increased sequentially

EBITDA margin enhanced by 20 bps QoQ to 33.4%, largely on account of decrease in other expenses, which indicates improved cost discipline and operating efficiency, aiding margin stability without materially impacting growth initiatives. We expect EBITDA margin to stay steady in 33-34% range as marketing expense is expected to increase in near term.

Maintain BUY

The platform continues to strengthen its core fundamentals, with rising buyer activity, expanding supplier base, and visible progress in lead quality and monetization. Management commentary remains confident on achieving improvement in paid supplier additions as churn initiatives mature. Rising monetisation from Gold/Platinum customers drive medium-to-long-term growth potential despite near-term cautious execution. We expect Revenue/EBITDA/PAT to clock CAGR of 14.9%/10.3%/6.4% over FY25-FY28E. We have revised our FY26E/FY27E/FY28E EPS by 0.1%/(2.3)%/(2.0%). We roll-over to March'28 and maintain the rating to BUY with a revised target price of Rs2,653 (vs Rs2,885 earlier) at a PE of 24x (down from 27x due to muted volume growth) on March'28E EPS.
